Public Speaking To-Night -- by Hon. J. W. Moore.

Ata late hour yesterday evening, notice was given that Judge Moore, of Mt. Sterling, would speak in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at 7 o'clock. Prior engagements and the shortness of the notice precluded many from attending who desired to hear the Judge, and it was thought best by his friends that the speaking should be postponed until to-night, at half past seven o'clock. Judge Moore has taken—his lever is as powerful as that of Arconsented to address the people at that hour, chimides, but the spot of earth upon which he and we bespeak for him a full house. To those has planted it, is that point-no-point that has who have never had the pleasure of hearing him, we would say that Judge Moore is justly entitled to rank amongst the ablest men and finest orators of the Democratic party, and those who shall favor him with a hearing will be well repaid, not only with an eloquent speech, but with a lucid and forcible presentation of Democratic principles.

Let all, then, turn out to hear him, and do themselves, as well as him, the favor to fill the Hall to its utmost capacity.

Bath. Maine. April 18th, 1859.

Prop. J. J. Wood & Co.: Gents.—The letter I wrote you in 1859, concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous inquiries touching the facts in the case. The inquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for forty years past, more soft, thrifty and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face, when if care were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt, been basely imitated and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact. I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful; I gave it to my friends, and thereby induced them to try it many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect upon my hair, as I assure all who inquire of me of my unshaken opinion of its valuable results. Head a lear sir, your, see so well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using one bottle of your Hair Restorative.

After using every kind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair. I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it.

Respectfully yours,

Mr. GOODLOE could not allow the passage of the bill without exhibiting his protest against it. He opposed the bill because he thought it would be oppressive to the city; and it would increase, instead of decreasing the evil complained of.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Senate.—Various petitions were presented.

Mr. Douglas offered a resolution that the Judiciary be instructed to report a bill for the protection of all the States and Territories against inment of conspirators and combinations in any reason why large cities should be divided into smaller precincts than rural districts. In the country, everyone was acquainted with the voters of the precinct; but the population of cities was so changeable that it could not always be ascertained who had a right to vote. He wanted the precincts reduced, so as no one would jostle his acidebour whose executions in the combinations in any constitutions of any other State.

Stone, Guthrie. & others.)

These were consolidated causes in equity, brought against Toombs and wife and Montgomery, the trustee of the wife, to subject the trust property to the payment of debts created by her in the purchase of goods, &c., for the use of her family, and for which she and her husband have executed their notes, expressing upon their face to have been given upon the consideration above stated.

The Circuit Court rendered judgment in favor of the plaintiffs in the action and appointed a commissioner to hire out a portion of the slaves and rent out a part of the land to raise a fund sufficient to pay the judgment; to reverse which judgment the defendants appealed.

the judgment; to reverse which judgment the defendants appealed.

The court, per Chief Justice Simpson, held:
The first question that arises in this case relates to the nature of the estate which the wife owns in the land and the slaves conveyed to Wm. Montgomery in trust for her use and benefit. If it be a separate estate, as distinguished from that estate which the wife acquires in lands descended, and in slaves by way of distribution, or by a converance in general terms, then under the provisions of the Revised Statutes, she had no power to charge or incumber it in any manner; and as the deed does not confer such a power, the case is not embraced by the amendatory act on the subject.

Every trust estate created for the use and benefit of the wife, is not a separate estate, but it must also of the wife, is not a separate estate, but it must also of the Republican party?

Mr. Underwood wished to know what evidence he had that any portion of the Republicans would join a new party.

Every trust estate created for the use and benefit of the wife, is not a separate estate, but it must also clearly appear, that the intention of the gift was, that it should be for the wife's separate enjoyment. That intention, it seems to us, is clearly manifested by the language of this dred. If provides that the trustee shall hold the property in trust for the use and benefit and support of the wife and her children, and shall permit her and her children to use, possess, and enjoy every part and parcel of the property which is to be controlled by her, for her comfort and support, and for the support and education of her children. The whole control and management of the property is thus conferred on her to the entire exclusion of her husband.

of the property is thus conferred on her to the entire exclusion of her husband.

The provision in the Revised Statutes concerning states held in trust, has no application to separate states which are something more than mere trust states. It only applies to estates that are, properly speaking, trust estates. A separate estate is peculiar in its character, and can only belong to a married woman, although it may be created previous to her marriage. The trust estates referred to in the acture hose that may belong to any person whatever, wor has the provision in the Revised Statutes which renders the real estate and slaves of the wife liable for such debts and liabilities contracted on account of necessaries for herself and family, as may be widenced by writing signed by her and her husband, thy application to her separate estate. The same chapter contains the provisions relating to her separate estate, which are wholly inconsistent with those somerning her other property, by which it clearly appears that a distinction between them was intended to be made.

The provision, that estates theretofore created shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a shall not be sold or encumb to be made.

The provision, that estates theretofore created shall not be sold or encumbered but by order of a court of equity, and only for the purpose of exchange and reinvestment, is not justly liable to the criticism made upon it. An estate may be encumbered to raise money, to be reinvested in property for the same use, and might be done very advantageously under the superintendence of a Court of Equity.

A Black Republican President could draw away all the arms from a slave State and take such action as would leave the South open to one hundred John Brown invasions; if the South submitted to the election of a Black Republican President, she would be in the same condition as an army which surrendered at discretion, entitled to only such terms as the victor might choose to grant.

He referred to the value of the Union as exercising a powerful effect in stimulating the Liberals of Europe to continue against monarchial and aristocratic institutions. In the course of his remarks he said, that Southern men would not recede from the Capitol; this was the last place tive courts, and the number of suits upon which of all they would ever give up if the Union was to be dissolved in blood; he hoped the first fruits would be reaped. He concluded his remarks by expressing confidence in the good fortune of the United States, and hoped for perspective Union. The further consideration of the subject was then postponed till to-morrow.

J. H. GARDNER'S $5 ENGLISH AND CLASSICAL

FEMALE INSTITUTE,

FEMALE INSTITUTE,

BRIDGEPORT, KY.

THE semi-yearly sessions of this Institute commence on the first Monday in February, and the first Monday in September, each year. The course of study embraces the Primary, Academical, and Collegiate Depritments, with the Modern Languages. The mode of instruction is thorough and scientific. To raise the standard of Female Education is the great aim of the Teachers, and to aid them in this, a "Visiting and Examining Committee" of three will visit the school quarterly, and by their rigid examinations will prove, it is hoped, valuable auxiliaries to the Teachers in exciting a spirit of energy and application. The course of instruction embraces four departments, and diplomas will be granted those who complete thoroughly and successfully a full course of study. The location is in the pleasant village of Bridgeport, (four miles from Frankfort and forty-eight from Louisville,) which is unsurpassed for its salubrity, and the morality and refinement of its inhabitants make it a desirable place for the education of girls. It is convenient of access by the Louisville, Frankfort, and Lexington railroad, and by daily stages and omnibuses from Frankfort, Shelbyville, and Louisville. The young ladies board in the family of the Principal, and are treated with parental care and kindness, enjoying at the same time all the advantages of a refined social intercourse. The sessions will continue twenty weeks; but pupils are received at any time and charged accordingly. No deduction made for absence or withdrawal save in cases of protracted illness. All bills to be paid strictly and invariably in advance.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.'S REPRINT OF THE British Reviews.

AND Blackwood's Magazine.

1. The London Quarterly (Conservative.) 2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig.) 3. The North British Review (Free Church.

4.3The estminster Review (Liberal.) 5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

THESE Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig. Tory, and Radical—butpolities forms only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

OUR REPRINTS versus ECLECTICS, &c.

As we have for many years been paying more than $3.000 annually to the British Publishers for the matter furnished in these Periodicals, thus virtually becoming copartners with them in the profits of the Reprints, we trust the public will consider this in bestowing their patronage, and give us the preference over Eelectic and over patchwork publications, whether monthly, or weekly, which now extract so liberally from our works and pay nothing either to the Foreign Publishers or to us for the same. As to cheapness nobody can complain of paying $10 a year for the four leading British Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine, and by taking these works entire, subscribers are not obliged to be guided by others in the choice of the articles they may desire to read. Moreover, taking into consideration the style in which our Reprints are published and their acknowledged fidelity to the original editions, and also the advantage of an early issue by means of the advance Sheets—our series will be found as cheap as any of the competing publications to which we have alluded.

A Specific for Hooping-Cough. A Specific for Hooping-Cough.

It is known by a few individuals in the counties of Jefferson. Shelby, and Oldham, that I have a remedy that effectually cures Hooping-Cough. If there are remedies in America or Europe that cures, it is not within my knowledge, (except the one I use.) Physicians tell the families they attend it can't be cured. I have no doubt they are candid in what they state. To get the medicine in use, and lull to sleep a deep-rooted prejudice, the faculty are invited to get the medicine, and save the little innocents whom they attend, and tell them no more it cannot be cured. One dollar will pay for two bottles, which is a sufficiency for one child. This medicine can be conveyed to any part of the United States by express for a mere trifle. THE VESPER GAS most Convenient Artificial Light in the World!

AIR LIGHT, The Cheapest, most Brilliant, an most Convenient Artificial Light in the World!

The Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for elegance, economy, safety, and simplicity far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flame and fixtures precisely resemble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliancy and purity of light, it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of the fixture is so simple that it is not lable to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burned in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient. It is entirely free from oder while burning, as by a simple contrivance, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, producing perfect combustion and a most intense light. The light has been pronounced by those who have had it in constant use for months, as most pleasant to the eye while reading or sewing, there being no flicker or unsteadiness in the flame. The V-sper Gas Light is portable, and can be used in towr or country—in fact, wherever artificial light is required. The fixtures themselves are adapted in styles to suit all tastes, from the plain single-light burner to the most costly chandelier. Each chandelier is perfect in itself; there is no outlay to be made for service pipes. The gas is generated in the burner, and all fixtures, from the cheap single-light burner to the expensive chandelier, are miniature gas-works in themselves. They are sold at prices which do not have never before appeared in print. Price $1. By mail $1 15.
